Job Description and Duties

Under the general supervision of the Information Technology Manager I, the incumbent works as a business analyst team member within the Chamber Management and Customer Relations Section of the Chamber and Committee Division providing information technology technical and analytical support for the California State Legislature. As a business analyst, the incumbent performs as a team member on project and support teams that provide technical expertise, support, and training for legislative applications and business processes for the Assembly and Senate Chamber Systems. The incumbent provides on-site and offsite support to assist legislative customers with information technology problems and business process questions. The incumbent analyzes, troubleshoots, and resolves Assembly and Senate Chamber Systems computing problems, and analyzes, documents, and facilitates the resolution of information technology and business process problems by working collaboratively with other IT specialists of the Office of Legislative Counsel (OLC). The incumbent is required to work overtime to meet workload demands; to work cooperatively with peers, teams, management, and any other persons contacted during the course of duties; to model excellence in information technology and customer service; and to adhere to professional business attire due to direct customer contact. Core business hours are 8:00 am to 5:00 pm, Monday through Friday, and the incumbent is expected to be available during core hours. However, the schedule may be adjusted as overtime on weekdays, weekends, and holidays is required during peak times of the year. Peak times generally fall within the legislative session, which is January through September.
