Applicants must submit a complete and accurate application package, free from spelling, grammar, and punctuation errors.

Statement of Qualifications

A Statement of Qualification (SOQ) is required for this position. A Statement of Qualifications (SOQ) is a narrative discussion of how your education, experience, skill, and training meet the minimum qualifications and desirable qualifications to qualify you for this position.

It also serves as documentation of your ability to present information clearly and concisely in writing. Your SOQ should be typed, include your name at the top of the first page, be no more than two (2) pages in length, Arial 12-point font, and address the following statements and questions:

1. Describe a customer service experience that sticks out to you as being challenging, complicated and/or rewarding. What was the final outcome?

2. Can you describe a difficult technical issue that was assigned to you? What were the challenges and how did you resolve it?

3. Please describe how you would align with the desirable qualifications?

Equal Opportunity Employer

The State of California is an equal opportunity employer to all, regardless of age, ancestry, color, disability (mental and physical), exercising the right to family care and medical leave, gender, gender expression, gender identity, genetic information, marital status, medical condition, military or veteran status, national origin, political affiliation, race, religious creed, sex (includes pregnancy, childbirth, breastfeeding and related medical conditions), and sexual orientation.

It is an objective of the State of California to achieve a drug-free work place. Any applicant for state employment will be expected to behave in accordance with this objective because the use of illegal drugs is inconsistent with the law of the State, the rules governing Civil Service, and the special trust placed in public servants.
